

The date for the 2023 Midnight Man will be the 12th/13th August

On line entries are now open for the 2023 Midnight Man Triathlon.

The event will be run under covid19 race rules laid out by British Triathlon.

We are also given a free entry into the Big South East swim if you enter the 2022 Midnight Man before the 1st January. This will give you chance to race on the Midnight Man course.

Unfortunately, you will need lights on your bike if you are going to be riding after 8.45pm. They are now turning of the lights on part of Bob Dunn way. I will post a map on the web site by the weekend to show you where there are no lights.

We are still the cheapest Long Distance Triathlon in the UK. We are also the first night time triathlon in the world.

On top of all that we are also the only 100% closed road bike course in the Uk.

Only £195 entry for the full, £110 for the half and £65 for the quarter.

We are giving out 10 Free Charity places into the 2021 Midnight Man. All you need to do is raise £500 for any charity in 2016. Contact us for more information.

You can also only use an official swimming wet suit not a Surfing or Diving wet suit.

Sorry but you will also need to have done open water swimming before you can take part in this race.

In the event of us losing any part of the course we will turn the Triathlon into an alternative event. If we lose the road it will become an Aquathlon. If we lose the lake it will become a Duathlon.
